

Diary of Jonathan B. Fuller

June 4th. column. National & Regimental Colors of 2d. Colorado Cav. borne by soldiers--Female division--smallest girls in front--headed by Brig. Gen. J.B. Fuller. Sunday School. Banner borne by two boys--Crawford James & Sam. Brown escorted by four little girls--National & Regimental Standards of an Infantry Reg. Boys Division headed by Brig. Gens. Rogers & Thomas--whole column under command of Maj[.] Gen. I.M. James. Paraded about 150 in Procession--Marched by Headquarters down to the Rank--thence up Main St. to Smarts Pasture. Where we had singing Prayer and Address by myself. Singing, dinner, swinging, jumping the rope[,] conversation, drumming and a good time generally. The whole affair was very creditable to the School.

[June] 5[.] A.M. 2d. Sam 14:14. General discourse of Mrs. Sarah R. Rublene. Large. At night owing to threatening indications of a storm--no service.

[June] 8[.] Prayer meeting as usual; myself leading[.]

[June] 12[.] A.M. Heb[.] 10:25. Large[.] P.M. Rev[.] 6:17[.] [Large.] P.M. attended S.S. Teacher's meeting.

[June] 15[.] Prayer Meeting.

[June] 19[.] A.M. Luke 12:48. Large[.] P.M. Luke 19:41[.] [Large.] As the citizens are doing guard duty the regular detail of course reduces to some extent our congregation.

[June] 21[.] A.M.9. Joined in Marriage John Gotshall and Mrs[.] Sarah Spurgeon at the residence of the Bride's father Bro. Huff.

June 22[.] At 7 A.M. started with Bro. Thomas for Liberty--which point we reached about 11 A.M. After an hours rest entered the chapel of Wm. Jewel College--listened to an excellent little Address from B.R. Vineyard, one of the students. Then myself arose to deliver the Annual Address to the Joint Literary Society of the College. Spoke extempore. It was well received.

In the afternoon attended the exhibition of the Eunomian Society Clay Female Seminar. By request of the Principal acted as Chaplain. Exercises very entertaining though somewhat too protracted. Baccalaureate Address by Miss Emma J. Routt very beautiful and highly finished. Valedictory by Jennie Wilson excellent.

[June] 23[.] Looking over Bro. Owen's Library and nursing a headache all day[.] In evening went to the Cantata by the whole force of Clay Seminary. The piece was well dressed and moderately sung.

[June] 24[.] Commencement Exercises Clay Seminary. Eight graduates. The ceremony of crowning the Graduates looked well. The Addresses were all good--but that of Miss Jennie A. Wilson[,] "Fameless Lives" was for excellence of thought, force and beauty of expression, vigor and correctness of delivery--not only far superior to the others--but in my opinion far above all I have ever before heard

Journal of Jonathan B. Fuller for the year of our Lord, 1864

June 24 from a woman. Miss Routt's Address was perhaps more classically beautiful but this was full of a wonderful vigor. What impressed me chiefly was that every one of Scholars had been trained to a false artificial system of gesture. But Miss Wilson bursting the bonds of conventionalism was true and telling in every movement and tone. She thrilled every nerve with exquisite delight by her impassioned manner and words. I have heard great men in the nation's councils who could not equal that Address. If her mind corresponds to this specimen, she might under proper influence have a man in the world not "fameless."

In the evening Commencement Exercises of Wm. Jewel College. Excellent. B.R. Vineyard gave us another fine speech on "Immortality." The colloquy or Drama rather was well acted.

[June] 25[.] Home again about noon.

 [Oct.] 22. Rebels advancing from Independence. 3 1/2 P.M. Distant cannon. 4 1/2 Our forces marching to Kansas City in rapid retreat. 5. Musketry--smart skirmish apparently two or three miles off. Darkness brought quiet--save that about 8 1/2 P.M. a large body of horse, Jennison probably, passed, toward Kansas City. Rebel watchfires shining[.]
 [Oct.] 23[.] Sunday morning dawned with slight cloudiness which soon passed--a light breeze from N.E. At 8 A.M. we could see faintly the Rebel line formed near Bro. Wornell's house--some 3 miles

South. In a few minutes our guns opened from the Magee place 2 miles South--two guns in the lane. Our line on the crest of the hill. Rebels answered first with one gun far to their right--then with four or five to our centre. Musketry firing hard to distinguish on account of the adverse wind. About 11 A.M. our line fell back to Brush Creek this side, Firing light. But Pleasanton has been pressing their right and menacing their rear--and by 2 P.M. our whole line is advancing--rebels in full retreat--our batteries in pursuit. 5 P.M. a few of us walked out to see the field. Saw one of our guns burst--[8?] dead rebels--dead horses numerous--fences leveled.
